

Gyllyngdune Gardens and Princess Pavillion

project Gyllyngdune Gardens and Princess Pavillion location Falmouth, Cornwall client Carrick District Council dates 2004 - 2011
cost £1.25 million

The Princess Pavilion is a venue for concerts, lectures, and other gatherings in Falmouth. It was built in the early 20th century in the walled garden of an adjacent villa, and the garden is a remarkable period piece which includes shell grottos and pavilions overlooking the sea. The formal garden immediately next to the Pavilion includes a glazed perimeter verandah which had fallen into serious disrepair.

Garden and bar project opened in 2011.
